The 2000 Series Garden Window adds a bright new dimension to window design

Standard Sizes

The projection from the exterior wall face is a constant 17 inches.

The vent frame width is a constant 15 7/8 inches; only the height changes.

Width can increase to a maximum of 72 5/8 inches as the height decreases to 33 inches.

Structural

- ◆ Fully welded, rigid PVC vinyl frame for greater strength and stability
- ◆ Completely assembled with head and seatboard for easy installation
- ◆ Will not chip, rot or peel and will never need to be painted
- ◆ Strong integral screwport connections at mullion
- ◆ Top sloped insulating glass (a constant 35 degrees) is tempered for improved safety and unit integrity
- ◆ Both vents and deadlites have a built in weep system and external glazing
- ◆ Snap-in corner slope closure profile assures tight weather seal
- ◆ Plywood head and seatboard are 1 1/4" for improved structural and thermal performance (option; rigid foam insulation under seatboard adds thermal protection)
- ◆ Head and seatboard (17") are available in birch or oak veneer, white or tan pionite
- ◆ Clear one-inch insulated glass provided for all-weather protection (options include high performance low E, grids, and v-groove)
- ◆ Snap in sill cover for seatboard provides aesthetic appeal and weather resistance
- ◆ Equal sightline between picture unit and operating sashes
- ◆ Engineered for new construction and remodeling applications
- ◆ Standard garden window jamb depths of 4 9/16", 5 1/4", 6 9/16" and 11" are available as well as custom jamb depths to fit almost any application

Operating Sash

- ◆ Specifically designed, twin sealing, fully screened, operating casement with external glazing improves weather protection
- ◆ Unique, convenient multi-point locking system for tighter seal and added security

Colors

- ◆ Standard colors are white and tan
- ◆ A variety of colors and wood grain are available upon special order

Options

- ◆ One or more adjustable 3/8" thick glass shelves with polished edges
- ◆ Custom sizes available by special order
